NEW BUSINESS

A. Curriculum Audit

Dr. Greenlee had sought quotes from companies that can assist in implementing a process for sound continuous improvement. Ms. Arlana Bedard, Director for Programs and Services, Consortium for Educational Change gave a presentation on the proposed audit. She noted the goal of the audit will be to discover the degree of alignment that exists and make recommendations that may be implemented to improve instruction and, in turn, student academic performance. Ms. Bedard said auditors will review current policies, processes, implementation of CIA and results of teaching and learning. The auditors will also collect data through the self-assessment completed by staff, focus group interviews, classroom observations, and document analysis on implementation of the CIA practices. Mr. Mulholland asked if this was the right time for an audit and Ms. Bedard replied that mid-strategic plan is a good time to do a check to see if efforts are showing. She noted their service identifies findings, and the District would then choose how to prioritize. Mrs. Lilja added that after looking at PARCC and MAPs scores, we can see our students are struggling. She said the audit will help identify the areas in which we can improve our instruction as well as support teachers to be stronger in instruction.

A motion was made by Mr. Moon and seconded by Mrs. Maxey to approve the Curriculum Audit by Consortium for Educational Change as presented for a cost of $18,050.

The motion was carried by unanimous roll call.

The plan is to start the interventions in 2018-2019. Mr. Kinser asked if pulling students from elective classes would be an option in an effort to capture all students in need.
